

The only gallery in the world that funds its own animal rescue mission.

Contact:

Luba Kladienko-Ramirez
gallery@arttosavelives.org
845-548-5161

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
November 5, 2022

CLOSING THE DIVIDE
A Collaborative Group Exhibition

MIAMI, FL - ArtToSaveLives Contemporary is pleased to host a few selected artists from Adelson Galleries (Palm Beach) and N’Namdi Contemporary (Miami) for an amazing group exhibition.

Opening Reception is to be held on Saturday, November 5th, from 6pm - 9pm, located at 9705 NE 2nd Ave, Miami Shores, FL 33138.

ArtToSaveLives Contemporary joins forces with the two powerhouse galleries to bring the community a sensationally curated exhibition that will run from November 5th 2022 until November 23rd 2022. Don’t miss it!

“With this exhibition we continue to try and bridge the community of amazing galleries around town so that we can give further light to and celebrate these hard working and talented artists in a setting that goes beyond their represented locations. Together we’re stronger,” said Luba Kladienko-Ramirez (gallery director/founder).

Participating artists include Peter Reginato, Magdalena Murúa, Aithan Shapira, and Antonio Carreño.

“As always, a percentage of the sales from this exhibition will be allocated towards our animal rescue, a practice we have been doing since the start of our careers in 2006, in the suburbs of NY,” Kladienko-Ramirez explained.

About the Collaborating Galleries:

Adelson Galleries

In 1965, Warren Adelson founded Adelson Galleries in Boston with a focus on 19th and 20th century Fine Art. Seven years later, Warren moved to New York, where he has been ever since – currently located in The Fuller Building in Midtown Manhattan.

In 2012, Adam Adelson opened Adelson Galleries Boston with his sister, Alexa – Warren's two children in the art business. The gallery quickly developed a reputation as one of the most well-respected venues for exhibiting Contemporary Fine Art in Boston, MA, and placed several artworks in Museums and private collections around the world. After seven successful years in Boston, Adam and Alexa decided to move the gallery to Palm Beach, Florida. Since 2018, the two have taken their experience and the Contemporary artists that they have cultivated to a new city. The gallery is located in the heart of Palm Beach's Worth Avenue, and Adelson Galleries has quickly become a staple in the community.

N'Namdi Contemporary

Jumaane N'Namdi, director of N'Namdi Contemporary Miami and N'Namdi Contemporary Chicago, was introduced to the professional art world at the age of six. It was at this time in 1981, when his father, George, founded the G.R. N'Namdi Gallery in Detroit, Mi. Reared in the gallery business and amid an extensive family art collection, Jumaane developed his innate appreciation and understanding for the interrelationship of art, artist and collector.

Upon graduation from Morehouse College in 1997, Jumaane, begin his formal career in the arts at what was then the burgeoning G.R. N'Namdi Gallery Chicago. His discerning eye began to distinguish great pieces from good ones, making it possible for his art patrons to meet world-renowned artists and to develop some of the country's most prestigious art collections. While under his father's tutelage, Jumaane quickly assumed the directorship of G.R. N'Namdi Gallery Chicago and subsequently G.R. N'Namdi Gallery New York.

Continuing to forge ahead, Jumaane opened the N'Namdi Contemporary Miami and N'Namdi Contemporary Chicago. He continues to uphold the artistic standards of the master artists he has exhibited in the past, while expanding the gallery's roster and making N'Namdi Contemporary a home for renowned cutting edge international artists.