“Audrey’s Mist” by JuanCarlos rLora

Here is a selection of pieces from "Audrey's Mist" which is JuanCarlos' latest study from "Audrey's Journey" series, where the pieces have a misty, ethereal appearance, evoking a feeling of birth, as if a planet's atmosphere is just being born or developed.

In the words of the artist himself:

"Audrey's Mist represents the point in time where the Big Bang's dust settles and the chemicals dispersed merge, attract, and react with one another to create atmospheres, universes, galaxies and form the ecosystems that will eventually sustain life. Exploring the journey of what we know now to be familiar and necessary at the point where life's balance was beginning to form and become."
